

ABC Paragraph	A-B-C Paragraph breakdown when writing a quick-write or body paragraph:
A	Answer the Question
B	Back it Up with an Evidence
C	Comment with an Explanation

A- Answer the question or provide a claim (1 sentence).

B- Back it up with evidence/an example (sentences vary).

- Never leave a quote dangling. Include Introductory expressions such as For example "...", The speaker states "..." etc.

- Include parenthetical citations when necessary: (Smith 32).

- Evidence: examples, statistics, facts, anecdotes, personal experiences, etc.

C- Comment on what the evidence shows to make your point (at least 3 sentences).

- Provide commentary on the the author/speaker means by this evidence.

- This should also include a rule (warrant) which is a general rule in society

- *Begin the rule/warrant with "most would agree" "Typically," "Usually," "Most would...," etc. (At least 3 sentences).